A PROPOSAL FOR THE ENCOUNTER, AMSTERDAM

A Collection for The Encounter

North Light — Old Amsterdam, seen from the new

A concept for a new five-star landmark north of the IJ: old Amsterdam, seen from the new, in a collection that makes every arrival an encounter.

GOLDEN HOUR — AMSTERDAM GALLERY DUTCH ART

01 — THE OPPORTUNITY

A new five-star landmark north of the IJ deserves art that is an encounter in itself.

The Encounter brings five-star hospitality to Amsterdam-Noord at a generous scale: 197 rooms and a rooftop with a restaurant, cocktail bar and pool, looking back across the water at the historic city. That view, old Amsterdam seen from the new, suggests a collection built on contrast: the light and heritage of the Golden Age, translated into a contemporary visual language that belongs in Noord.

01

The view is the story

The historic skyline, seen from the north, is what sets this hotel apart.

02

Scale needs coherence

197 rooms call for one recognisable collection rather than decoration.

03

The rooftop is a stage

Up there, art can move with the light, from golden hour into night.

PRISM OF PROVENANCE

02 — THE CONCEPT

North Light

OLD AMSTERDAM, SEEN FROM THE NEW

North Light treats the hotel as a vantage point. Public spaces carry large signature works that look back at the historic city through Gallery Dutch Art's palette of cobalt, ivory and gold. The rooms hold a numbered series that turns the skyline into intimate studies. On the rooftop, a Living Painting follows the colour of the Amsterdam sky from golden hour into night.

01

A signature arrival

One large-scale work that makes the first encounter with the hotel unforgettable, and photographable.

02

A coherent room series

One collection across 197 rooms: unique compositions within one palette, numbered and certified.

03

Art that moves

Living Paintings for the lobby and rooftop screens, shifting with the time of day.
