A PROPOSAL FOR JANU DUBAI

A Collection for Janu Dubai

Golden Hours — Dutch light for a city of light

A concept for a social sanctuary in the heart of DIFC: a permanent collection with a living layer that renews itself for guests, residents and members.

TULIPOMANIA — NOCTURNE GALLERY DUTCH ART

01 — THE OPPORTUNITY

A social sanctuary in the heart of DIFC, with a collection people talk about.

Janu Dubai brings Aman Group's more social, connected brand to the centre of Dubai's financial district, combining a hotel, branded residences and a members' club. That mix of guests, residents and members who return again and again calls for art that can evolve: a collection with a permanent core and a living layer that changes with the seasons and the calendar of the city.

01

Return visits

Members and residents need a collection that renews itself over time.

02

Art as conversation

Something to discover, discuss and, for those who wish, collect.

03

Provenance matters

In a financial district, verified authenticity is part of the value.

GOLDEN HOUR — AMSTERDAM

02 — THE CONCEPT

Golden Hours

DUTCH LIGHT FOR A CITY OF LIGHT

Golden Hours pairs a permanent collection of original works with a programme of Living Paintings: digital artworks that change with the time of day in the lounges and the members' club. A selected series is issued as limited digital editions with a blockchain certificate of authenticity, offered to members as a collectable, never as an investment.

01 A permanent core

Signature originals for the arrival, the lounges and the residences' common spaces.

02 A living layer

Living Paintings on screens that shift from morning to evening, curated per season.

03 Collectable, with provenance

Limited digital editions with certificates of authenticity, available to members.
